Mr. Schottel:

I am writing to follow up on my voice message earlier today. As you know, the Court denied our attempt to cancel your deposition of Christina Wilson, which is set for next Friday afternoon. Accordingly, it is my intention to depose Annie Smith on the morning of Friday, July 26, 2013 beginning at 9:00 a.m. I have no problem conducting that deposition at your office if it is available, assuming we will have access to a copy machine should that be necessary. Obviously, I do not want to schedule something to take place at your office without your permission. Please advise.

On a personal level, I hope you are recovering well from your recent procedure.
